

The Indiana Law to restrict telemarketer phone calls to my residence was the best thing that ever happened to help my peace of mind. I am a senior citizen and found the phone calls very annoying, as well as suspicious at times. I wondered if they were trying to con me out of something. Their persistence was rude after I would say "I'm not interested." Please don't change this law!!!